This traditional hotel has a 100 year history, originally a hotel in Amsterdam but was upgraded and recreated in a theme park called Huis Ten Bosch. The interior designs are modeled after a Dutch mansion of the nineteenth century. Elegantly decorated guestrooms open upon an ocean view or the streets of the theme park. Maisonette-type rooms are equipped with a spiral staircase, providing guests with a stay in a graceful atmosphere. Suite rooms of different styles also offer a luxurious stay, one of which offers aesthetic treatments for guests' exquisite relaxation. The hotel restaurant faces the canal and serves French dishes and Japanese dishes. The theme park is located a few minutes' walk from Huis Ten Bosch Station on JR Omura Line.
