Stands along the Matsumoto River. The ryokan (traditional Japanese-style inn) exhibits works of calligraphy by local predecessors. Guestrooms surround the traditional Japanese-style garden that is composed of rocks and sand and offers a truly relaxing experience. Guests can relax themselves to the fullest in a quiet and calm atmosphere. There are also high-quality rooms used by the Imperial family. The ryokan serves traditional Japanese dishes crafted from carefully selected ingredients by the chef. The large communal bath with a ceiling made of Japanese cypress trees, is floored entirely in black granite, providing guests with a dignified onsen (hot spring) bath. 7 mins. on foot from Higashi-hagi Station on the JR San-in Main Line.
